DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance for defining the meaning of certain terms and for shortening the Language used in Ordinances and other written Laws and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to define more precisely the meaning of certain terms and to shorten the language used in Ordinances and other written Laws and to make certain provisions relating to the same: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Interpretation Ordinance, 1900."

Repeal of Ordinances
No. 1 of 1852 and
No. 23 of 1884.

2 The Ordinances No. 1 of 1852 and No. 23 of 1884 are hereby repealed.

Interpretation clause.

3 In this Ordinance and in every written Law, whether made before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

- (1) "Abet" with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions shall have the same meaning as in the Penal Code.
- (2) "Chapter," "part," "section," and "schedule" shall denote respectively a chapter, part, and section of, and schedule to, the Ordinance in which the word occurs, and "sub-section" shall denote a sub-section of the section in which the word occurs.
- (3) "Commencement" used with reference to an Ordinance shall mean the day on which the Ordinance comes into force.
- (4) "Gazette" or "Government Gazette" shall mean the Gazette published by the order of the Government of the island of Ceylon, and shall include any Extraordinary Gazette so published.
- (5) "The Government" shall mean the Governor.
- (6) "Governor" shall mean the Governor of this island, and shall include the officer for the time being administering the government of this island.
- (7) "Governor with the advice and consent of the Executive Council," "Governor with the advice of the Executive Council," "Governor in Council," or "Governor in Executive Council" shall mean the Governor acting with the advice of the Executive Council of the island of Ceylon, but not necessarily acting in such council assembled, nor necessarily in accordance with such advice.
- (8) "His Majesty" and "Her Majesty" shall include the heirs and successors to the Crown according to law.
- (9) "Imperial Parliament" and "Parliament" shall mean the Parliament of the United Kingdom.
- (10) The expressions "rigorous imprisonment," "simple imprisonment," and "imprisonment of either description" shall have the same meaning as in the Penal Code, and "imprisonment" shall mean simple imprisonment.
- (11) "Master" used with reference to a ship shall mean any person (except a pilot) having for the time being control or charge of a ship.
- (12) "Month" shall mean a calendar month, unless words be added showing lunar month to be intended.
- (13) "Ordinance" shall mean an Ordinance made by the Legislative Council of this island, whether before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, and shall include regulation.
- (14) "Prescribed" shall mean prescribed by the Ordinance in which the word occurs, or by any rules duly made thereunder.
- (15) "Public holiday" shall mean any day which under the provisions of "The Holidays Ordinance, 1886," is to be observed as a public holiday.
- (16) "Registered" used with reference to a document shall mean registered under the provisions of the law for the time being applicable to the registration of such document.
- (17) "Sign" with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions shall, with reference to a person who is unable to write his name, include "mark" with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions.
- (18) The words "this island," "this colony," and "the island of Ceylon" shall be held to mean the island of Ceylon and the dependencies thereof.

- (19) "Oath" and "affidavit" shall, in the case of persons for the time being allowed by law to affirm or declare instead of swearing, include affirmation and declaration, and "swear" shall, in the like case, include affirm and declare.
- (20) "Value" used with reference to a suit shall mean the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit.
- (21) "Will" shall include a codicil.
- (22) Words importing the masculine gender shall be taken to include females.
- (23) Words in the singular number shall include the plural, and vice versâ.
- (24) "Written law" shall mean and include all Ordinances of the Legislative Council of the island of Ceylon, and all orders, proclamations, letters patent, rules, by-laws, regulations, warrants, and process of every kind made or issued by any body or person having authority under any statutory or other enactment to make or issue the same in and for the island of Ceylon or any part thereof, but it shall not include any imperial statute extending expressly or by necessary implication to the island of Ceylon, nor any order of the Queen in Council, royal charter, or royal letters patent.

Powers to be exercisable from time to time.

4 Any power conferred by any Ordinance on the Governor, or on the Governor with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, or on the Governor in Council, or on the Governor in Executive Council may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

Effect of repeals.

5 (1) Whenever any written law repealing either in whole or part a former written law is itself repealed, such repeal shall not, in the absence of any express provision to that effect, revive or be deemed to have revived the repealed written law, or any right, office, privilege, matter, or thing not in force or existing when the repealing written law comes into operation.

(2) Whenever any written law repeals in whole or part a former written law and substitutes therefor some new provision, such repeal shall not take effect until such substituted provision comes into operation.

(3) Whenever any written law repeals either in whole or part a former written law, such repeal shall not, in the absence of any express provision to that effect, affect or be deemed to have affected—

- (a) The past operation of or anything duly done or suffered under the repealed written law ;
- (b) Any offence committed, any right, liberty, or penalty acquired or incurred under the repealed written law ;
- (c) Any action, proceeding, or thing pending or incom-pleted when the repealing written law comes into operation, but every such action, proceeding, or thing may be carried on and completed as if there had been no such repeal.

(4) This section shall apply to written laws made as well before as after the commencement of this Ordinance.

Making of rules in interval between passing and commencement of Ordinance.

6 Where by any Ordinance which is not to come into force immediately on the passing thereof a power is conferred on the Governor, or the Governor with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, or the Governor in Council, or the Governor in Executive Council, or any other body or person to make rules or to issue orders with respect to the application of such Ordinance, or with respect to the establishment of any office or the appointment of any officer thereunder, or with respect to the person by whom, or the time when, or the place where, or the manner in which, or the fees for which anything is to be done under such Ordinance, the power may be exercised at any time after the passing of such Ordinance, but rules or orders so made or issued shall not take effect till the commencement of such Ordinance.

Computation of time.	7 (1) Where a limited time from any date or from the happening of any event is appointed or allowed by any written law for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding in a court or office, and the last day of the limited time is a day on which the court or office is closed, then the act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day thereafter on which the court or office is open. (2) Where by any written law any act or proceeding is directed or allowed to be done or taken in a court or office on a certain day, then if the court or office is closed on that day the act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day thereafter on which the court or office is open. (3) Where a limited time not exceeding six days from any date or from the happening of any event is appointed or allowed by any written law for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding in a court or office, every intervening Sunday or public holiday shall be excluded from the computation of such time. (4) Where by any written law a day is named for the doing or taking of any act or proceeding not being an act or proceeding to be done or taken in a court or office or for the happening of any event, and that day falls upon a Sunday or public holiday, such written law shall be read as if the first lawful day next succeeding such Sunday or public holiday had been named. (5) This section shall apply to written laws made as well before as after the commencement of this Ordinance.
Provisions as to offences under two or more laws.	8 Where any act or omission constitutes an offence under two or more laws, whether either or any of such laws came into force before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, the offender shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be liable to be prosecuted and punished under either or any of those laws, but shall not be liable to be punished twice for the same offence.
Commencement of time.	9 In all Ordinances— (1) For the purpose of excluding the first in a series of days or any period of time, it shall be deemed to have been and to be sufficient to use the word "from ;" (2) For the purpose of including the last in a series of days or any period of time, it shall be deemed to have been and to be sufficient to use the word "to ;" (3) For the purpose of expressing that a law relative to the chief or superior of an office shall apply to the deputies or subordinates lawfully executing the duties of such office in place of such chief or superior it shall be deemed to have been and to be sufficient to prescribe the duty of such chief or superior ; (4) For the purpose of indicating the relation of a law to the successors of any functionaries or corporations having perpetual succession, it shall be deemed to have been and to be sufficient to express its relation to the functionaries or corporations ; and (5) For the purpose of indicating the application of a law to every person or number of persons for the time being executing the functions of an office, it shall be deemed to have been and to be sufficient to mention the official title of the officer executing such functions at the time of the passing of the Ordinance.
Termination of time.
Official chiefs and subordinates.
Successors.
Substitution of functionaries.
Reference to repealed enactments.	10 (1) Where in any written law or document reference is made to any written law which is subsequently repealed, such reference shall be deemed to be made to the written law by which the repeal is effected or to the corresponding portion thereof. (2) This section shall apply to written laws and documents made as well before as after the commencement of this Ordinance.
General provisions with respect to	11 (1) Where any Ordinance, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, confers power on any authority to make rules, the following provisions shall, power given to any authority to make rules.

unless the contrary intention appears, have effect with reference to the making and operation of such rules :

- (a) Any rule may be at any time amended, varied, rescinded, or revoked by the same authority and in the same manner by and in which it was made ;
- (b) There may be attached to the breach of any rule such penalty not exceeding fifty rupees as the authority making the rule may think fit, and any such penalty may be recovered in the same manner as a fine imposed by a police court ;
- (c) No rule shall be inconsistent with the provisions of any enactment ;
- (d) All rules shall be published in the Gazette and shall have the force of law ; and
- (e) The production of a copy of the Gazette containing any rule, or of any copy of any rule purporting to be printed by the Government Printer, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and for all purposes whatsoever, of the due making and tenor of such rule.

(2) In this section the expression "rules" includes rules and regulations, regulations, and by-laws.

Acts done under rules, &c., to be deemed done under Ordinance by which rules authorized.

12 An act shall be deemed to be done under any Ordinance, or by virtue of powers conferred by any Ordinance, or in pursuance or execution of the powers of or under the authority of any Ordinance if it is done under or by virtue of or in pursuance of any rule, order, or by-law or regulation made under any power contained in such Ordinance.

Imperial Acts to be read with necessary modification.

13 Whenever by any Ordinance any Act of the Imperial Parliament is extended to this island, such Act shall be read with such formal alterations as to names, localities, courts offices, persons, moneys, penalties, and otherwise as may be necessary to make the same applicable to the circumstances of this island.

Saving of rights of the Crown.

14 No enactment shall in any manner affect the right of the Crown unless it is therein expressly stated, or unless it appears by necessary implication, that the Crown is bound thereby.

By His Excellency's command,

J. J. THORBURN,
Colonial Secretary's Office, for Colonial Secretary.
