DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to impose a General Tax on Dogs.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to levy a general tax on dogs in this island: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Dog Tax Ordinance, 1901."

Repeal.

2 There shall be repealed, as on and from the date of this Ordinance coming into operation—

(a) The Ordinances specified in schedule A to this Ordinance, to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

(b) So much of any other Ordinance as is inconsistent with this Ordinance. Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

(1) The past operation of any enactment hereby repealed, nor anything duly done or suffered thereunder; nor

- (2) Any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment hereby repealed; nor
- (3) Any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment hereby repealed; nor
- (4) Any legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid, and such legal proceeding or remedy may be carried on as if this Ordinance had not passed.

Interpretation clause.

3 In this Ordinance—

“Proper authority” shall mean within any town wherein a municipal council or local board of health and improvement has been or may hereafter be established, the chairman of such municipal council or local board, and without the limits of any such town the government agent or any person duly authorized by him in writing.

“Government agent” shall include the government agent for the time being of the province and the assistant government agent for the time being of the district in which anything shall be done or may be required to be done under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Governor may bring provinces,
towns, &c., under the operation of this Ordinance.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to be for that purpose published in the Government Gazette, to bring any province, district, town, or place under the operation of this Ordinance, and to define the limits of such province, district, town, or place for the purposes of this Ordinance, and such Proclamation to amend, alter, or revoke as and whenever the Governor shall, with the like advice, determine.

Dog license.

5 When any province, district, town, or place has been brought under the operation of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful to the proper authority, and such proper authority is hereby authorized and empowered, to levy an annual tax not exceeding one rupee and fifty cents on each dog kept within such province, district, town, or place, and to make from time to time such by-laws as shall be necessary for collecting and levying the same; and any person residing in any such province, district, town, or place having in his custody or possession any dog or dogs shall take out a license for each such dog from the proper authority, and the proper authority shall issue in respect of each such dog a license to such person, which shall entitle such person to keep such dog for one year from the date of such license.

Publication of by-laws.

6 All by-laws made under the preceding section shall be published in the Government Gazette in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages respectively and from the date of such publication shall have the same force as if they had been enacted in this Ordinance.

Occupier of house liable.

7 The occupier of any house or premises where any dog or dogs are kept or permitted to live or remain shall be liable to pay the license duty for such dog or dogs, and in default of such payment shall be liable to the penalties incurred by persons keeping unlicensed dogs, unless the said occupier can prove to the satisfaction of the police magistrate of the division within which he resides that he is not the owner or has not the custody of such dog or dogs, and that such dog or dogs were kept or permitted to live or remain in the said house or premises without his sanction or knowledge: Provided always that where there are more occupiers than one of the house or premises let in separate apartments or lodgings or otherwise, the occupier of that particular part of the premises in which such dog or dogs shall have been kept or permitted to live and remain shall be liable to pay the license duty for such dog or dogs.

Register of licenses.

8 Every proper authority shall keep a book to be called "The Register of Dogs' License Book," in which he shall register the issue of every license, the date thereof, and the name and residence of the person to whom such license issued, as also the description of the dog or dogs as contained in the license.

Certificate to be obtained on transfer of a dog.

9^a Where any dog shall be transferred by sale or gift by its owner to any other person it shall not be necessary for such person to take out a new license for such dog if such dog shall have been licensed within the year, but such person shall obtain from the proper authority who issued such license a certificate in the form in the schedule B to this Ordinance, and such person shall within fifteen days after such transfer cause such certificate to be registered in "The Register of Dogs' License Book" kept for the province, district, town, or place in which such person resides, and the proper authority of such province, district, town, or place shall, on application, register such certificate, and shall certify such registry at the foot or at the back of the certificate; and in default of causing such registry to be made such person shall be liable to the penalties incurred by persons keeping unlicensed dogs.

Seizure of stray dogs.

10 Every proper authority shall cause all stray dogs to be seized, and such dog shall be dealt with as follows:

- (1) Every dog so seized shall be detained in some proper place and be there kept for such period, not less than three days from the date of such seizure, as the proper authority may think expedient, provided that where the owner or other person who had charge of the dog is known, the proper authority shall cause notice to be forthwith given to either of them of the seizure and detention of the dog; and upon receiving payment of the reasonable expenses incurred in respect of such seizure and detention, together with the tax in the case of an unlicensed dog, shall deliver the dog to the person noticed or his agent, without prejudice however to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of any of the provisions of this Ordinance.
- (2) If the dog so seized and detained be not claimed within two days after the notice aforesaid has been served, or in case no owner or other person is known to be in charge of the dog within such period, not less than three days after such seizure as the proper authority may think expedient, or in case of non-payment of the reasonable expenses incurred in respect of such seizure and detention, and the tax if it be due as aforesaid, it shall be competent to the proper authority to cause the dog to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such manner as to the proper authority shall seem fit.

Penalties.

11 (1) Any person who shall from and after the thirty-first day of March in each year after the coming into operation of this Ordinance have in his possession or custody within any province, district, town, or place brought under the operation of this Ordinance any dog not duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees, and in default of payment to simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding two weeks, and the police magistrate shall further order such person forthwith to take out a license for such dog, and the proper authority shall thereupon issue such license upon payment of the proper license duty by such person, and such license shall be held to be valid until the thirty-first day of March next following the date of such license; and if after such order such person shall continue to keep any dog without having obtained a license, he shall, in addition to the fine imposed for the second and any subsequent offence, pay a sum not exceeding fifty cents for each day he shall have kept a dog without a license.

(2) Any person committing a breach of any by-law made under the provisions of section 5 shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees, and in default of payment to simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding two weeks.

Production of license.

12 Every person having in his possession any dog shall produce the license for such dog whenever so required by a police magistrate, police officer, or peace officer, or by a proper authority, or any other person duly authorized by him in writing, and in case of refusal he shall, if such dog has been duly licensed, be liable to a fine not exceeding five rupees.

Fine not to be imposed when default not wilful.

13 No fine shall be imposed by a police magistrate in any case in which it shall appear to his satisfaction that the person failing to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance or any by-law made thereunder has not wilfully been guilty of such failure, but that such failure has been occasioned by accident; provided always that such police magistrate shall forthwith order such person to take out a license for the dog or dogs in his possession or custody, or otherwise comply with the provisions of this Ordinance, and that such person shall forthwith comply with such order.

Municipal Councils and local boards entitled to duties.

14 All sums paid for stamp duties for licenses under the provisions of this Ordinance, and all penalties recovered under the provisions of this Ordinance from the inhabitants of any municipal town, shall be taken and received by the municipal council of such town for the municipal fund, and all such like sums and penalties paid by or recovered from the inhabitants of any local board town shall be taken and received by the local board of health and improvement of such town for the local fund, and in the case of the town of Nuwara Eliya shall be taken and received by the Board of Improvement of Nuwara Eliya for the purposes of "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement Ordinance, 1896."

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

A proposed Ordinance for regulating the Sale of Manures or Fertilizers of the Soil.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide against the adulteration of manures or fertilizers of the soil : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Fertilizers Ordinance, 1901."

Commencement of Ordinance.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the day of , 1901.

Warranty on sale of fertilizer.

3 (1) Every person who sells for use as a fertilizer of the soil any article produced or manufactured in Ceylon or imported from abroad shall give to the purchaser an invoice stating the name of the article and whether it is an artificially compounded article or not, and what is at least the percentage of the nitrogen, soluble and insoluble phosphates, and potash, if any, contained in the article, and this invoice shall have effect as a warranty by the seller of the statements contained therein.

(2) For the purposes of this section an article shall be deemed to be manufactured if it has been subjected to any artificial process

(3) This section shall not apply to a sale where the whole amount sold at the same time weighs less than half a ton.

Penalty for breach of duty by seller.

4 (1) If any person who sells any article for use as a fertilizer of the soil commits any of the following offences, namely :

(a) Fails without reasonable excuse to give, on or before or as soon as possible after the delivery of the article, the invoice required by this Ordinance ; or

(b) Causes or permits any invoice or description of the article sold by him to be false in any material particular to the prejudice of the purchaser, he shall, without prejudice to any civil liability, be liable, on conviction, for a first offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and for any subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

(2) In any proceeding for an offence under this section it shall be no defence to allege that the buyer, having only bought for analysis, was not prejudiced by the sale.

(3) Any person alleged to have committed an offence under this section in respect of an article sold by him shall be entitled to the same rights and remedies, civil or criminal, against the person from whom he bought the article as are available to the person who bought the article from him, and any damages recovered by him may, if the circumstances justify it, include the amount of any fine and costs paid by him on conviction under this section, and the costs of and incidental to his defence on such conviction.

Power to appoint analyst.

5 The Governor shall appoint one or more agricultural analysts for the island, who shall, while holding the office of Agricultural Analyst, not engage in any trade, manufacture, or business connected with the sale or importation of articles used for fertilizing the soil. Should more than one agricultural analyst be appointed, one of them shall be appointed chief agricultural analyst.

Power for purchaser to have fertilizer analyzed.

6 (1) Every buyer of an article used for fertilizing the soil shall, on payment to an agricultural analyst of a fee sanctioned by the Governor, be entitled within ten days after delivery of the article to the buyer, or receipt of the invoice by the buyer, whichever is later, to have the article analyzed by the analyst, and to receive from him a certificate of the result of his analysis.

(2) Where a buyer of an article desires to have the article analyzed in pursuance of this section, he shall, in accordance with regulations made by the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council, take three samples of the article, and shall, in accordance with the said regulations, cause each sample to be marked, sealed, and fastened up, and shall deliver or send by post one sample with the invoice or copy thereof to an agricultural analyst, and shall give another sample to the seller, and shall retain the third sample for future comparison; provided that an agricultural analyst, or some person authorized by him in that behalf with the approval of the Governor, shall, on request either by the buyer or the seller, and on payment of a fee sanctioned by the Governor, take the samples on behalf of the buyer.

(3) The certificate of the agricultural analyst shall be in such form and contain such particulars as are directed in the schedule hereto annexed, and every agricultural analyst shall carefully enter in a register to be kept for that purpose the result of any analysis made by him in pursuance of this Ordinance.

(4) If the seller or the buyer objects to the certificate of the agricultural analyst not being the chief agricultural analyst, one of the samples selected or another sample selected in like manner, may, at the request of the seller, or, as the case may be, the buyer, be submitted with the invoice or a copy thereof to the chief agricultural analyst, and the seller, or, as the case may be, the buyer, shall, on payment of a fee sanctioned by the Governor, be entitled to have the sample analyzed by the chief agricultural analyst, and to receive from him a certificate of the result of the analysis.

(5) At the hearing of any civil or criminal proceeding with respect to any article analyzed in pursuance of this section, the production of a certificate of an agricultural analyst shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated, unless the defendant or the person charged requires that the analyst be called as a witness.

(6) The cost of and incidental to the obtaining of any analysis in pursuance of this section shall be borne by the seller or the buyer in accordance with the results of the analysis, and shall be recoverable as a simple contract debt.

Penalty for tampering.

7 If any person knowingly and fraudulently (a) tampers with any parcel of fertilizer so as to procure that any sample of it taken in pursuance of this Ordinance does not correctly represent the contents of the parcel; or (b) tampers with any sample taken under this Ordinance, he shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, simple or rigorous, for a term not exceeding six months.

Prosecutions and appeals.

8 (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Ordinance contained, the police court within whose jurisdiction any offence against this Ordinance is committed shall be empowered to hear, try, and determine the prosecution for such offence, and to award the punishment prescribed by this Ordinance.

(2) Any person aggrieved by a conviction under this Ordinance may appeal to the Supreme Court.

Regulations.

9 (1) The Governor may, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time make regulations for the taking of samples and for the marking, sealing, and fastening up of the same, and such regulations he may with the like advice revoke, amend, or alter.

(2) All regulations when so made, revoked, amended, or altered shall be published in two successive issues of the Government Gazette in the English language, and shall be laid before the Legislative Council if then in session, and if not then in session, then so soon as possible after the commencement of the next ensuing session, and if within forty days after their being so laid before the Legislative Council any of such regulations be objected to by the Legislative Council, the said Council may by resolution amend or annul any such regulations. All regulations so amended and such regulations as shall not be amended or annulled by the said Council shall be proclaimed in two successive issues of the Government Gazette in the English language, and shall come into force upon such proclamation in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon be as legal, valid, effectual, and binding, as if the same had been inserted in this Ordinance.

Construction and application.

10 (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, the expressions "soluble" and "insoluble" shall respectively mean soluble and insoluble in water or citrate of ammonium.

(2) This Ordinance shall apply to wholesale as well as retail sales.

SCHEDULE.

Form of Certificate.

I certify that I have analyzed the sample or samples of (here insert the name of the article) _____ delivered to me (or sent by post) by _____, or taken by _____ on behalf of the buyer _____, and that they contain _____ per cent. of nitrogen, _____ per cent. of soluble phosphates, _____ per cent. of insoluble phosphates, and _____ per cent. of potash.
