DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to provide for the validity of certain Marriages in the Central, North-Western, North-Central, Sabaragamuwa and Uva Provinces under "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870."

Preamble.

Registration of certain marriages in the Central, North-Western, North-Central, Sabaragamuwa, and Uva Provinces irregular by reason of having been registered by persons and at places not duly authorized.

WHEREAS "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870," requires, inter alia, in order to constitute a valid marriage thereunder, that the same shall be registered in the presence of any registrar for the district where such marriage is contracted, and at the appointed office of the registrar, or at such other place as the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar shall, in any special case, direct and appoint : And whereas in the Central, North-Western, and Uva Provinces divers marriages contracted under the said Ordinance were registered in the presence of and by Francis Jago Smith, Arthur Charles Allnutt, and Harry Edward Beven, each of whom purported to act in the matter of such registration in the capacity of district registrar without being duly appointed as such : And whereas in the Central, North-Western, North-Central, and Sabaragamuwa Provinces divers other marriages contracted under the said Ordinance were registered by the registrars whose names appear in the schedule hereto, at places which had not been duly appointed for the purpose of such registration : And whereas it is expedient to remove all doubts as to the validity of the aforesaid marriages notwithstanding their registration by persons, and at places, not duly appointed : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Irregular registration of marriages by persons not duly appointed declared valid.

1 The registration of all marriages contracted in the Central, North-Western, and Uva Provinces and registered between the 1st July, 1897, and 31st March, 1900, by the aforesaid Francis Jago Smith, Arthur Charles Allnutt, and Harry Edward Beven, shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes intended by, or relating to, or connected with the provisions of "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870," as if the said persons who officiated at and registered such marriages had been duly appointed registrars of marriages as in the said Ordinance provided.

Irregular registration of marriages at places not duly appointed declared valid.

2 The registration of all marriages contracted in the Central, North-Western, North-Central, and Sabaragamuwa Provinces and registered by the registrars whose names appear in the schedule hereto, between the 1st January, 1895, and 31st December, 1900, at places which had not been duly appointed for the purpose of such registration, shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes intended by, or relating to, or connected with the provisions of "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870," as if the places at which such marriages were registered had been duly appointed as in the said Ordinance provided.

Saving clause.

3 Nothing herein contained shall give any validity—

(a) To the registration of any marriage so irregularly registered as aforesaid, except so far as relates to defects thereof caused by the non-appointment as registrar of the person who registered or purported to register such marriage, or by the irregular appointment or non-appointment of the place at which such marriage was registered ; or

- (b) To any such marriage as aforesaid that may heretofore have been declared invalid by a competent court ; or
- (c) To any such marriage as aforesaid where the parties or either of them have or has subsequently contracted a valid marriage.
