PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 23 of 1901.

An Ordinance to amend "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889."

WEST RIDGEWAY.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 2 of 1889 in the particulars hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Ordinance to be read as one with Ordinance No. 2 of 1889.

Amendment of section 775.

When appeal may be re-heard.

1 This Ordinance shall be read and construed as one with "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance."

2 For section 775 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section:

When the bench hearing the appeal is composed of two judges, and the judges composing the bench do not agree as to the decree which should be passed by the court on the appeal, then the appeal shall be re-heard by three judges of the said Court on a day specially appointed for the purpose, of which notice shall be given to the parties.

or their counsel. And after such re-hearing any judge dissenting from the decree, which the majority consider ought to be passed on appeal, shall state in writing the decree which he thinks ought to be made, and shall state his reasons for the same. Provided that in the case of appeals from the decision of a judge of the Supreme Court sitting alone, as in "The Courts Ordinance, 1889," provided, when the two judges hearing the appeal do not agree, the original judgment shall stand affirmed.

When all the judges of which the bench hearing the appeal is composed are unanimous in regard to the decree which ought to be passed, the judges shall pronounce the judgments in order of seniority, commencing with the judge who is senior in rank, but, if otherwise, they shall pronounce their judgments in the reverse order.

Amendment of section 780.

Application to be made to Supreme Court.

3 For section 780 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section :

Whoever desires to appeal under this chapter to His Majesty in Council must apply by petition to the Supreme Court to have the judgment, decree, sentence, rule, or order, against which he is desirous so to appeal, brought before three judges of the Supreme Court by way of review ; and shall also give security for the payment of all costs of the hearing in review, which may be awarded to the respondent.

Such application must be made within two calendar months from the date of the judgment, decree, sentence, rule, or order complained of.

Amendment of section 782.

When certificate granted court to hold hearing in review.

4 For section 782 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section :

If such certificate is refused, the petition shall be dismissed.

If the certificate is granted, then the court shall fix a day for hearing the case in review before three judges of the court sitting at Colombo ; and seven days' notice of such day shall be given by the registrar to all parties.

The judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the Supreme Court after such hearing in review shall be pronounced, made, or passed, in accordance with the rules hereinbefore prescribed for the judgment and decree on appeal.

Passed in Council the Twelfth day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and One.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Eighteenth day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and One.

R. W. IEVERS, ~~MO. B. A. G.~~
Acting Colonial Secretary.
