PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 16 of 1898.

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 2 of 1883, in
"The Ceylon Penal Code."

WEST RIDGEWAY.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Ceylon Penal Code," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance, which may be cited as "The Ceylon Penal Code Amendment Ordinance, 1898," and the principal Ordinance shall be read together as one Ordinance.

Amendment of section 38 of Ordinance No. 2 of 1883.

2 In sub-section (b) of section 38 of the principal Ordinance, after the number "62" and before the number "63" shall be inserted the number "63."

Insertion of section 67 (a).

3 After section 67 of the principal Ordinance shall be inserted the following section, which shall be section 67 (a):

67 (a) In all cases in which judgment is given that a person is guilty of one of several offences specified in the judgment, but that it is doubtful of which of these offences he is guilty, the offender shall be punished for the offence for which the lowest punishment is provided, if the same punishment is not provided for all.

4 For section 393 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted :

Property, the possession whereof has been transferred by theft, or by extortion, or by robbery, or by forgery, or by cheating, and property which has been criminally misappropriated or in respect of which criminal breach of trust has been committed, is designated as "stolen property," whether the transfer has been made, or the misappropriation or breach of trust has been committed, within or without this Colony. But if such property subsequently comes into the possession of a person legally entitled to the possession thereof, it then ceases to be stolen property.

5 For section 427 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted :

Whoever enters into or upon property in the occupation of another with intent to commit an offence, or to intimidate, insult, or annoy any person in occupation of such property, or having lawfully entered into or upon such property unlawfully remains there with intent thereby to intimidate, insult, or annoy any such person, or with intent to commit an offence, is said to commit "criminal trespass."

6 For section 450 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted :

Whoever is found in or upon any building or enclosure for any unlawful purpose, and whoever is found in or upon any building or enclosure and fails to give a satisfactory account of himself, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three months, or with a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or with both.

7 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette appoint.

Passed in Council the Twenty-fourth day of October, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-eight.

H. WHITE,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-fourth day of October, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-eight.

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 17 of 1898.

An Ordinance to amend "The Courts Ordinance, 1889."

WEST RIDGEWAY.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Courts Ordinance, 1889," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Amendment of Ordinance No. 1 of 1889.

1 After section 84 of the principal Ordinance, the following section shall be inserted and numbered 84 a, namely:

Unofficial police magistrates.

It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, by notice in the Government Gazette, to appoint any justice of the peace to be an unofficial police magistrate for any district or districts, and any justice of the peace so appointed shall thereupon have all the powers and authority by "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," vested in police courts, save and except the power and authority to take proceedings with regard to, or hear, try, or determine, any offence which by that Code or by any law of this Colony is summarily triable before a police court.

Date of operation.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette appoint.

Passed in Council the Twenty-fourth day of October, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-eight.

H. WHITE,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-fourth day of October, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-eight.

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.
