PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 19 of 1898.

An Ordinance to secure, in certain cases, the Right of Property in Telegraphic Press Messages.

WEST RIDGEWAY.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to secure, in certain cases, the right of property in telegraphic press messages: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Press messages by electric telegraph not to be published during forty-eight hours after receipt without consent of the receiver.

1 When any person, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, publishes in any newspaper or other printed paper published and circulated in Ceylon any message by electric telegraph from any place outside the said island, lawfully received by such person, no other person shall, without the consent in writing of such first-mentioned person, or his agent thereto lawfully authorized, print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, such telegram, or the substance thereof, or any extract therefrom, until after a period of forty-eight hours from the time of first publication; provided that such period shall not extend beyond sixty hours from the time of the receipt of such message (Sundays and public and bank holidays excepted), and the publication of the whole or any part of such telegram, or of the substance thereof, or (excepting the publication of any similar message in like manner sent) of the intelligence therein contained, or any comment upon, or any reference to, such intelligence, shall be deemed to be a publication of the same.

Unlawful publishing an offence.

2 If any person wilfully print and publish, or cause to be printed and published, any matter contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees; and every person who is convicted a second time of any offence against this Ordinance shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees.

How telegraphic messages protected by this Ordinance to be headed.

3 Telegraphic messages published under the protection of this Ordinance shall be printed under the heading "By Submarine Telegraph," and shall state the day and hour of their receipt, and such statement shall be prima facie evidence of the time of the receipt of such messages.

During forty-eight hours protected intelligence not to be transmitted to any person outside Ceylon.

4 (1) During the period of forty-eight hours hereinbefore mentioned, no intelligence protected by this Ordinance shall be transmitted by electric telegraph to any person outside Ceylon by or on behalf of any person other than the person who, under the provisions of this Ordinance, is entitled to the exclusive use of such intelligence.

Penalty.

(2) Any person acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for a first offence, and to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees for any subsequent offence.

What to be deemed prima facie evidence of publication of message.

5 In any prosecution under this Ordinance the production of any document which purports to be a telegraphic message from some place outside Ceylon, and which contains the intelligence published in the newspapers as aforesaid, and which has been delivered to some person entitled to receive the same by the proper officer of the Telegraph Department, shall be prima facie evidence that the message published as hereinbefore described in such newspaper is a message within the meaning of this Ordinance; and proof that any person is owner, or is, or is acting, or appears to be acting as editor or manager of any newspaper in which there has been any publication contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance shall be prima facie evidence that such person has wilfully caused such unlawful publication.

Limitation of Ordinance.

6 Nothing in this Ordinance shall extend to any document published by the Government Printer, or to the report of any proceedings in the Legislative Council.

Short title.

7 This Ordinance shall be cited as "The Telegram Copyright Ordinance, 1898."

Passed in Council the Twelfth day of December, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-eight.

H. WHITE,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fourteenth day of December, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-eight.

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 20 of 1898.

An Ordinance to consolidate and re-adjust the Customs Duties leviable on Imports.

WEST RIDGEWAY.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and re-adjust the Customs duties leviable on articles imported into this Island: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

To be read as one with Ordinance No. 17 of 1869.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1898," and shall be read as one with the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869.

Repeal.

2 There shall be repealed as from the commencement of this Ordinance the Ordinances specified in Schedule A to this Ordinance, to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

Definition clause.

3 For the purposes of this Ordinance—

"Flashing point" shall mean "flashing point" as defined in Ordinance No. 6 of 1887, or in any Ordinance that may hereafter be substituted therefor.

"Kerosine oil" shall include the liquids commonly known by the names of rock oil, Rangoon oil, Burma oil, kerosine, petroleum, paraffine oil, mineral oil, petroline, gasoline, benzol, benzoline, benzine, and any liquid that is made from petroleum, coal, schist, shale, peat, or any other bituminous substance, or from any products of petroleum with a flashing point of less than 200° F.

New schedules of articles.

4 The Schedules marked B, C, and D hereto annexed shall be substituted for those marked B, C, and D, respectively, annexed to the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869.

Rebate of duty on kerosine oil used in oil engines.

5 (1) A rebate shall be allowed by the Principal Collector of Customs of duty paid on kerosine oil used as the source of motive power in oil engines upon the production of such certificate and such evidence as may be prescribed by the regulations to be made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, under this Ordinance.

(2) The rebate shall be paid out of the duties received by the Principal Collector of Customs, anything in section 16 of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Regulations.

6 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time make, and when made revoke or vary, such regulations as may seem necessary or expedient in respect of the allowance of rebate, by the Principal Collector of Customs, of duty paid on kerosine oil which has been used as the source of motive power in oil engines.

Matters in respect of which regulations may be made.

7 (1) The regulations made under the last preceding section may provide amongst other things:

- (a) For prescribing the nature and form of the certificate required by section 5.
- (b) For prescribing the nature of the evidence to be produced in support of a claim for rebate.
- (c) For inspecting any engine in which kerosine oil is used as the source of motive power, and in respect of which a claim for rebate under section 5 is made, and the premises in or upon which such engine is kept.

- (d) For prescribing the times when and the periods for which payments of rebate shall be made.
- (e) For the appointment of inspectors and other officers to carry out the provisions of any regulations made under this Ordinance, and for regulating their duties and conduct, and for investing them with all powers necessary for the due execution of their duties.

(2) Provided always that nothing in this section contained shall in any way restrict or be construed to restrict the generality of the powers conferred on the Governor by the last preceding section, but such powers shall extend to all matters, whether similar or not to those in this section mentioned, as to which it may be expedient to make regulations for the better carrying into effect of the objects of this Ordinance.

Offences.

8 (1) If any person, without lawful authority or excuse (proof whereof shall lie on him), contravenes any regulation made under this Ordinance, or does or omits to do anything which under the provisions of any such regulations he ought not to do or omit, or if he obstructs or impedes or assists in obstructing or impeding any inspector or other officer appointed under this Ordinance in the execution of any provision of any such regulation, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

(2) Every prosecution for an offence against this Ordinance may be instituted in the police court of the division in which the offence was committed, and such court may impose the full penalties herein prescribed, anything in the Criminal Procedure Code or in any other Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty.

9 (1) If any person is guilty of an offence against this Ordinance he shall be liable on conviction before a police magistrate to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to both.

(2) Nothing in this section contained shall affect the liability of any person to any punishment or penalty to which he is liable at common law or under any enactment other than this Ordinance, but so that a person shall not be punished twice for one and the same offence.

Regulations to be published.

10 All regulations made under this Ordinance shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall from the date of such publication have the same force as if they had been enacted in this Ordinance; provided that all such regulations shall be laid before the Legislative Council at the next meeting of such Council if then in session, and if not then in session then so soon as possible after the commencement of the next ensuing session; and if within two months of their being so laid before the Legislative Council any of such regulations be objected to by the Legislative Council, the said Council may by resolution annul any such regulations.

Governor to specify by Proclamation what materials used in making tea boxes may pass free of Customs duty.

11 All materials which are used in making tea boxes, and which shall from time to time be specified in any Proclamation issued by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and published in the Government Gazette, may be imported into this island free of duty of Customs; and it shall be lawful for the Governor, with like advice, by further Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to revoke, alter, or amend any such Proclamation as aforesaid.

Commencement.

12 This Ordinance shall come into operation at such time as the Governor shall by Proclamation, to be published in the Government Gazette, appoint.
