THE following rules and regulations of the Maggona Certified Industrial School are published for general information.

The rules dated May 16, 1898, are hereby cancelled.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, February 19, 1904.

EVERARD IM THURN, Colonial Secretary.

Rules and Regulations of the Maggona Certified Industrial School.

The Maggona Certified Industrial School was established in 1895 in connection with the St. Vincent's Orphanage and Industrial School, Maggona. It is the property of the Catholic Mission, and is vested in the Archbishop of Colombo for the time being. Its object is the boarding, training, and tuition of such boys as may from time to time be ordered, by any Court of Law in Ceylon, to be therein detained for a term of years, provided that the Government shall pay to the institution a monthly remuneration equal to the cost of feeding, clothing, and supervising the said children.

On April 24, 1895, it was approved by the Governor as a Certified Industrial School under the provisions of Ordinance No. 1 of 1886.

The following rules, made by the Manager of the said School, have been submitted to and approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council :—

I.—MANAGEMENT.

1. The Institution shall be governed by a Manager nominated by the Archbishop of Colombo or the Administrator of the Archdiocese for the time being.

2. The Manager shall have full control and authority over the boys and their masters, subject to the directions of the Archbishop of Colombo or the Administrator of the Archdiocese, and on the understanding that attendance at religious services shall not be compulsory for boys who are not Catholics.

3. He shall be responsible for the maintenance of discipline and good order in the school.

4. Once a month he shall inspect every department of the school, examining the boys as to proficiency, cleanliness, and health, and he shall enter into a journal his remarks on those points.

5. He shall file and preserve the warrants of commitment or other orders of the Court by virtue of which the juvenile offenders have been admitted to the Certified School.

6. He shall keep the following registers—

(a) Registers of Admission and Attendance in accordance with the rules of the Department of Public Instruction.

(b) Register of Identity.

(c) Record Book.

(d) Punishment Book, in which shall be entered all punishments inflicted under rule 24.

(e) Journal or Log Book.

(f) Visitor's Book, in which Government officers and other visitors shall be requested to enter their remarks.

In the Record Book a record shall be kept of each boy showing his name, village, parents, previous occupation, and any circumstances with regard to his conviction which have been ascertained by the manager or his assistants; also his history after he leaves the school, so far as it can be ascertained.

7. The Manager shall, as a rule, admit to the Certified Industrial School any boy ordered by a criminal court to be detained in the said school. If, however, a boy thus convicted was known to be so unsound in mind or body that his presence in the school might constitute a danger for the security or health of the other children, the Manager shall decline to receive the same in the Industrial School. If he finds that there is reason to think that the sentence passed on any inmate ought to be reconsidered, he shall make a report on the subject to Government.

8. The Manager shall not allow any intercourse (either at work, at school, or at play) between the boys of the Certified Industrial School and the inmates of the other branches of the St. Vincent's Orphanage and Industrial School.

It shall be left to the Manager to decide whether, and at what intervals, boys shall receive visits from their parents and correspond with them by letter.

9. He may, in terms of sections 27, 28, and 29 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1886, apprentice an offender to any trade or calling, or bind him as agricultural or domestic servant, provided the conduct of the said offender has proved exceptionally good, and the party to whom the boy is bound is deserving of esteem and confidence.

10. Should any offender, before the expiration of his term of detention, escape from the premises of the Certified School, the Manager shall lose no time in giving information to the nearest Magistrate or Inspector of Police, and shall use every means in his power to re-capture the fugitive.

11. Boys, other than those undergoing a sentence from a criminal court, may be admitted to the Certified School, provided their parents or guardians agree to pay to the institution the cost of their maintenance.

12. The Manager shall have the financial administration of the institution; he shall receive all moneys due to it and grant discharges; he shall buy all necessary goods, pay tradesmen's bills, masters' and workmen's salaries; and he shall keep accounts of all receipts and expenditure.

13. The Manager shall be assisted in the performance of his duties by a Superintendent nominated by him, whose office shall be to supervise the juvenile offenders in all their exercises, except when they shall be occupied in the school or workshop, to see that the time-table is exactly followed, and to report to the Manager any breaches of rules or any other matter calling for its attention. He will also exercise authority over the guards and servants and over his assistant or assistants, should he have any.

II.—JUVENILE OFFENDERS.

14. Every juvenile offender on admission shall be placed in charge of the Superintendent in the Certified School quarters, and shall wear the dress appointed to be worn by all the boys of that school.

15. No boy shall be allowed to leave the premises without leave from the Manager.

16. Every boy shall be compelled to attend the school, in which the work shall be carried on in accordance with the rules of the Department of Public Instruction. The teaching shall be in the vernacular, except in the case of boys of Burgher or European parentage, who may receive tuition in English.

17. Every boy shall also be required to work, for at least three hours a day, Sundays and holidays excepted, at a trade selected for him by the Manager.

18. The food supplied to the juvenile offenders shall consist of three meals of curry and rice or conjee.

III.—TRADES.

19. The following trades shall be taught to the juvenile offenders, viz., carpentry, iron-work, tailoring, printing, binding, gardening, masonry, and such other trades as shall be approved by the Director of Public Instruction.

20. Each trade shall be taught by a skilful and experienced master, who shall be responsible for the instruction of the boys placed under him.

21. Each trade master shall see that his workshop or tool room is kept clean, tidy, and in good order.

22. Any gain accruing from the produce of the workshop or garden shall be the property of the institution. The Manager may, however, in order to encourage proficient boys, assign to them a small weekly or monthly allowance in money, which shall be handed to them on their discharge.

IV.—PUNISHMENTS.

23. Minor offences on the part of the boys shall be visited with such modes of correction as are generally used in schools.

24. Serious breaches of discipline, misconduct, or repeated disobedience shall be punished either by seclusion for a limited time or corporal punishment inflicted with a light cane by the Superintendent, provided the sanction of the manager is obtained in each case for either kind of punishment.

25. A register shall be kept by the Superintendent in which the names of such offenders who shall have rendered themselves liable to the punishments described in section 24 shall be entered, together with a statement of the offence and the kind of punishment given.

V.—TREATMENT OF THE SICK.

26. A Medical Officer, resident or non-resident, shall be attached to the institution. He shall visit the Certified School at such regular intervals as are prescribed by Government, and also whenever he is requested to do so by the Manager.

27. A journal shall be kept on the premises in which the Medical Officer shall enter his remarks and prescriptions.

28. A room or set of rooms shall be set apart to be used as a hospital for the sick.

29. An officer shall be appointed to take charge of the hospital, keep it clean, and take special care of the sick.

VI.—DISCHARGED OFFENDERS.

30. Some time before the date fixed for the discharge of a youthful offender the Manager shall endeavour to procure for him suitable employment, as far as possible in the trade in which he has been taught during his stay at the Certified School.

31. Even after a boy shall have left the school the Manager shall continue to interest himself in his welfare and give him from time to time such help or advice as may induce him to live a good life and be a useful member of society.

VII.—VISITOR.

32. The Director of Public Instruction shall be a Visitor of the School in accordance with the clauses 16 and 17 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1886. He shall visit the school not less than four times in the course of each year and shall present a full report to Government once in each year.

33. On each visit he shall examine all the books specified in rule 6, shall inspect the premises, and shall take such steps as he thinks fit to ascertain the general condition of the boys. He shall cause to be brought before him all boys who have been admitted to the school since his last visit, and shall ascertain to what trade each has been assigned. If there is any reason to suppose that any of such newly admitted boys is an unsuitable inmate of the school, he shall confer with the Manager on the subject and, if necessary, make a report to Government. He shall also have brought before him the boys who will be entitled to be discharged before his next visit, and test their proficiency in their trades.

34. On each visit he shall also inquire all that is known with regard to those who have left the school since his last visit. He shall also from time to time make independent inquiries with regard to some of those who have left the school, in order to satisfy himself whether the expenditure incurred in their education has proved remunerative. The Revenue Officers shall be directed to use the Headmen in order to obtain any information required for this purpose.
