The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Toll Ordinance, 1896."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Toll Ordinance, 1896" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Toll (Amendment) Ordinance, 1904," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance; and the principal Ordinance and this Ordinance may be cited together as "The Tolls Ordinances, 1896 and 1904."

Amendment of section 22 of principal Ordinance.

2 In section 22 of the principal Ordinance the following words shall be substituted for the words "river or stream," namely :

"river, stream, canal, lake, estuary, creek, inlet of the sea, or other expanse of water."

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 28, 1904.

Colonial Secretary.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance for the better enforcement of certain conditions in the Sales of Tolls and Arrack Rents.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the enforcement of certain conditions in sales of tolls and arrack rents: Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Tolls and Arrack Rents Ordinance, 1904."

2 Whenever by the conditions of sale under which the privilege of selling arrack and toddy in any part of the island, or the exclusive right to levy and collect tolls in respect of any road, bridge, ferry, or canal, is sold or leased by the Crown, it is stipulated that, on default by the purchaser or lessee (hereinafter called "the renter") in the performance of all or any of the conditions contained in the said conditions of sale :

Power of government agent to enforce penalties for breaches of conditions of sale of tolls and arrack rents.

(a) The government agent shall be at liberty to re-sell the said privilege or exclusive right or so much of the term thereof as may be unexpired ; or

(b) The government agent shall be at liberty to re-enter upon the said privilege or exclusive right or so much of the term thereof as may be unexpired, and the same again to have, collect, receive, retain, and enjoy, as of his former estate, and to expel the renter or his administrators and all others as to the said government agent shall seem meet ; or

(c) The renter shall forfeit any sum which he has paid to or deposited in the Government Treasury ;

it shall be lawful for the government agent, whenever any such default as aforesaid is made, to enforce the penalty in manner hereinafter mentioned, any rule of law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where penalty consists in forfeiture of a sum paid to or deposited in the Treasury.

3 Where the penalty consists in the forfeiture of any sum which the renter has paid to or deposited in the Government Treasury, the government agent shall give notice in writing to the renter that such sum has been forfeited to the Crown, and thereupon the same shall be deemed to have been duly forfeited and to have vested in the Crown.

Where penalty consists in re-sale by Crown of privilege or exclusive right or in re-entry into possession.

4 Where the penalty consists in the re-sale by the Crown of the privilege or exclusive right or in the re-entry by the Crown into possession thereof, the government agent shall give notice in writing to the renter that the sale or lease to him has been vacated and determined, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the government agent, without process of law or decree or order of any court in that behalf authorizing him, forthwith to re-sell the said privilege or exclusive right or the unexpired term thereof in such manner as the Governor may direct, or to re-enter into possession thereof, and receive, retain, and enjoy the same and remove and expel the renter therefrom as provided by the said conditions.

Form of notice.

5 The notice in writing required by the two last foregoing sections may be given by forwarding it by post in a letter addressed to the renter at the place which the renter in pursuance of the conditions of sale has signified for the service on him of notices or processes, or by serving the same on him personally, or by affixing it on his last known place of residence.

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 28, 1904.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to the Registration of Trade Marks in Ceylon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the registration of trade marks in Ceylon: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Trade Marks Amendment Ordinance, 1902," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), and this Ordinance and the principal Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 4 of 1890 may be cited together as "The Trade Marks Ordinances, 1888 to 1902."

Addition to principal Ordinance of section regarding international arrangements for protection of trade marks.

2 In lieu of section 41 of the principal Ordinance the following sections shall be substituted, and shall be numbered respectively 41 A and 41 B :

41 A If His Majesty is pleased by Order in Council to apply the provisions of section 103 of "The Patent Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883," to Ceylon, then any person who has applied for protection for any trade mark in the United Kingdom or in any foreign state with the Government of which His Majesty has made an arrangement under the said section for the mutual protection of trade marks shall be entitled to registration of his trade mark under this Ordinance in priority to other applicants ; and such registration shall have the same date as the application in the United Kingdom or such foreign state, as the case may be.

(2) Such application shall be made within four months from such person applying for protection in the United Kingdom or in the foreign state with which the arrangement is in force.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall entitle the proprietor of a trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the date of the actual registration of his trade mark in this colony.

(4) The use in Ceylon of a trade mark during the period aforesaid shall not invalidate the registration of the trade mark.

(5) The application for the registration of a trade mark under this section shall be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Ordinance, but any trade mark the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin may be registered under this Ordinance.

(6) The provisions of this section shall apply only in the case of those foreign states with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council shall have declared the provisions of the aforesaid section 103 of the above recited Imperial Act to be applicable, and so long only, in the case of each state, as such Order continues in force with respect to that state.

Provision for intercolonial arrangements.

41 B Whenever it appears to the Governor in Executive Council that the Legislature of any British Possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection in such Possession of trade marks registered in Ceylon, the Governor in Executive Council may by Proclamation apply all or any of the provisions of the last preceding section relating to the protection of trade marks registered in the United Kingdom, with such variations or additions

(if any) as to the Governor in Executive Council shall seem fit to trade marks registered in such British Possession.

(2) An Order in Council under this section shall from a date to be mentioned in the order take effect as if its provisions had been contained in this Ordinance, but the Governor in Executive Council may revoke any such order.

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 28, 1904.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to the granting of Exclusive Privileges to Inventors.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the granting of exclusive privileges to inventors in certain respects: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance shall be construed and read as one with Ordinance No. 16 of 1892 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), and may be cited as "The Inventions (Amendment) Ordinance, 1902," and this Ordinance and the principal Ordinance and the enactments amending the same may be cited together as "The Inventions Ordinances, 1892 to 1902."

Petition to be presented in Ceylon by petitioner or his agent.

2 For sub-section 3 of section 4 of the principal Ordinance the following sub-section shall be substituted:

(3) The petition must be in writing, and shall be signed by the petitioner or petitioners, but if the petitioner or petitioners shall be absent from Ceylon, the petition may be signed by an agent in Ceylon duly authorized thereto on his or their behalf. The petition shall be in the form A in the second schedule hereto, or in such other form as may be from time to time prescribed, if the inventor or inventors has not or have not obtained a patent in the United Kingdom, and in the form B in the said schedule or in such other form as may be from time to time prescribed, if he or they has or have obtained a patent in the United Kingdom.

3 After section 5 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added and shall be numbered 5 A:

Duty of referee to ascertain whether invention claimed in prior specifications.

5 A (1) When a petition has been referred under the last foregoing section to any person for inquiry and report, such person shall forthwith, in addition to the inquiries which he is required to make under the said section, make a further investigation for the purpose of ascertaining whether the invention claimed has been wholly or in part claimed or described in any specification filed before the date of the petition.

Procedure where invention described in previous specification.

(2) If the person to whom the petition is referred reports that the invention claimed has been wholly or in part claimed or described in any specification filed before the date of the petition, the petitioner shall be informed thereof, and the petitioner may within such time as may be prescribed by rule under this Ordinance amend his petition, and the amended petition shall be referred for inquiry in like manner as the original petition.

Where invention has not been claimed in prior specification.	(3) If the Governor in Executive Council is satisfied that no objection exists to the petition on the ground that the invention claimed thereby has been wholly or in part claimed or described in a previous specification as before-mentioned, he shall, in the absence of any other lawful ground of objection, make an order authorizing the petitioner to file a specification of the invention.
Reference to prior specification, when required.	(4) If the Governor in Executive Council is not so satisfied he shall after such further inquiry, if any, as he shall think fit, and unless the objection be removed by amending the petition to the satisfaction of the Governor in Executive Council, determine whether a reference to any and, if so, what prior specifications ought to be made in the specification by way of notice to the public.
Additional fee.	(5) The Governor in Executive Council may prescribe an additional fee not exceeding fifteen rupees in respect of the investigation mentioned in this section, which shall be payable on the issue of the grant of exclusive privilege.
Date when section comes into force.	(6) This section shall come into operation at such date as the Governor in Executive Council may by order direct, and shall apply only to petitions made after that date.
Validity of grant of exclusive privilege not guaranteed.	(7) The investigations and reports required by this section shall not be held in any way to guarantee the validity of any grant of exclusive privilege in respect of an invention.
Industrial and international exhibitions.	4 For section 24 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted : 24 The exhibition of an invention at an industrial or international exhibition, or the publication of any description of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition, or the use of the invention for the purpose of the exhibition in the place where the exhibition is held, or the use of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition by any person elsewhere without the privity and consent of the inventor, shall not prejudice the right of the inventor or his legal representative to apply for and obtain a grant of exclusive privilege in respect of the invention or the validity of any grant of exclusive privilege issued on the application, provided that both the following conditions are complied with, namely: (a) The exhibitor must, before exhibiting the invention, give the Colonial Secretary such notice of his intention to do so as may be prescribed by rule passed under section 45 of this Ordinance; and (b) The application for a grant of exclusive privilege must be made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.
International arrangement for protection of invention.	5 After section 44 of the principal Ordinance the following sections shall be inserted and numbered 44 A and 44 B : 44 A If His Majesty is pleased by Order in Council to apply the provisions of section 103 of the Imperial Act, entitled "The Patent Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883," to Ceylon, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention in the United Kingdom or in any foreign state with the government of which His Majesty has made an arrangement under the said section for the mutual protection of inventions shall be entitled to a grant of exclusive privilege for his invention under this Ordinance in priority to other applicants ; and such grant shall take effect from the same date as the date of the application in the United Kingdom or such foreign state (as the case may be).
Duration of protection.	(2) Such application shall be made within twelve months from such person applying for protection in the United Kingdom or the foreign state with which the arrangement is in force.

Nothing to be deemed an infringement before leave to file specification.

Use within certain periods not to invalidate grant of exclusive privilege.

Manner of application.

Application of this section to foreign states.

Provision for intercolonial arrangements.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall entitle the grantee of exclusive privilege to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the date of the order of the Governor in Executive Council authorizing specification in Ceylon.

(4) The publication in Ceylon during the period aforesaid of any description of the invention or the use therein during such period of the invention shall not invalidate the grant of exclusive privilege for the invention.

(5) The application for the grant of exclusive privilege shall be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Ordinance.

(6) An application under this section shall be accompanied by a specification, which, if leave to file it be not given within the period of twelve months, shall, with the drawings if any, be open to public inspection at the end of that period.

(7) The provisions of this section shall apply only in the case of those foreign states in respect of which His Majesty by Order in Council shall have declared the provisions of the aforesaid section 103 of the above recited Imperial Act to be applicable, and so long only in the case of each state as such Order continues in force with respect to that state.

44 B Whenever it appears to the Governor in Executive Council that the Legislature of any British Possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection in such Possession of inventions in respect of which a grant of exclusive privilege has been made in Ceylon, the Governor in Executive Council may, by Proclamation, apply all or any of the provisions of the last preceding section, relating to the protection of inventions patented in the United Kingdom, with such variations or additions (if any) as to the Governor in Executive Council seem fit, to inventions patented in such British Possession.

(2) A Proclamation under this section shall, from a date to be mentioned for the purpose in the Proclamation, take effect as if its provisions had been contained in this Ordinance, but the Governor in Executive Council may revoke any such Proclamation.

By His Excellency's command,

EVERARD IM THURN,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 28, 1904.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance for the Registration of Designs.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the registration of designs in this island : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Designs Ordinance, 190," and shall come into operation at such time as the Governor shall appoint by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette.

Definitions.

2 For the purposes of this Ordinance :

"Design" means any design applicable to any article of manufacture or to any substance, artificial or natural, or partly artificial and partly natural, whether the design is applicable for the pattern, or for the shape or configuration or for the ornament thereof, or for any two or more of such purposes, and by whatever means it is applicable, whether by printing, painting, embroidering, weaving, sewing, modelling, casting, embossing, engraving, staining, or any other means whatever, manual, mechanical, or chemical, separate or combined.

“Copyright” means the exclusive right to apply a design to any article of manufacture or to any such substance as aforesaid in the class or classes in which the design is registered.

“Colonial Secretary” includes any assistant to the Colonial Secretary to the extent to which he may be authorized by general or special order of the Governor to discharge the duties of the Colonial Secretary under this Ordinance, and any person lawfully discharging the duties of the Colonial Secretary or such assistant.

“Prescribed” means prescribed by the schedule to this Ordinance or by general rules under or within the meaning of this Ordinance.

Definition of

3 The author of any new and original design shall be considered the proprietor thereof, unless he executed the work on behalf of another person for a good or valuable consideration, in which case such person shall be considered the proprietor, and every person acquiring for a good or valuable consideration a new and original design, or the right to apply the same to any such article or substance as aforesaid, either exclusively of any other person or otherwise, and also every person on whom the property in such design or right to the application thereof shall devolve shall be considered the proprietor of the design in the respect in which the same may have been so acquired, and to that extent but not otherwise.

The register of designs.

4 (1) The Colonial Secretary shall keep at the Colonial Secretary's Office a book called “The Register of Designs,” and shall enter therein the names and addresses of proprietors of registered designs and such other matters as may be from time to time prescribed.

(2) The register of designs shall be prima facie evidence of any matters by this Ordinance directed or authorized to be entered therein.

Power to register
new and original
designs.

5 (1) The Colonial Secretary may, on application by or on behalf of any person claiming to be the proprietor of any new or original design not previously published in Ceylon, register the design under this Ordinance.

(2) The application must be in the form in the schedule hereto or in such other form as may be prescribed, and must be left at the Colonial Secretary's Office in the prescribed manner. The application must be signed by the applicant, or if he is absent from Ceylon, it may be signed by an agent in the island duly authorized thereto on his behalf.

(3) The application must contain a statement of the nature of the design and the class or classes of goods in which the applicant desires that the design be registered.

(4) The date of delivery or receipt of the application shall be endorsed thereon and recorded in the Colonial Secretary's Office.

(5) The same design may be registered in more than one class.

(6) In case of doubt as to the class in which a design ought to be registered, the Colonial Secretary, after such inquiry as may appear necessary, may decide the question, or he may refer it for decision by the Governor in Executive Council.

Power of Colonial Secretary to register design.

6 (1) Upon such application as aforesaid the Colonial Secretary may, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, make an order authorizing the registration of the design.

(2) When an order has been made under this section, the Colonial Secretary shall cause the design to be registered in the register of designs.

(3) The date of registration shall be recorded in the said register.

(4) The Colonial Secretary may, if he thinks fit, refuse to register any design presented to him for registration, but any person aggrieved by any such refusal may appeal therefrom to the Governor in Executive Council.

(5) The Governor in Executive Council shall, after such inquiry as may appear necessary, make an order determining whether, and subject to what conditions if any, registration is to be permitted.

Copies, &c., of the design to be furnished.

7 (1) On application for registration of a design the applicant shall furnish to the Colonial Secretary the prescribed number of copies, drawings, photographs, or tracings of the design sufficient in the opinion of the Colonial Secretary for enabling him to identify the design, and suitable for official records, or the applicant may, instead of copies, drawings, photographs, or tracings, furnish exact representations or specimens of the design.

(2) The Colonial Secretary may, if he thinks fit, refuse any drawing, photograph, tracing, representation, or specimen which is not, in his opinion, suitable for official records, or he may require the applicant to furnish further copies of any drawing, photograph, tracing, representation, or specimen which has been supplied.

Certificate of registration.

8 (1) The Colonial Secretary shall grant a certificate of registration to the proprietor of the design when registered.

(2) The Colonial Secretary may, in case of loss of the original certificate, or in any other case in which he deems it expedient, grant a copy or copies of the certificate.

Copyright on registration.

9 When a design is registered, the registered proprietor of the design shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, have copyright in the design during five years from the date of registration.

(2) Before delivery on sale of any articles to which a registered design has been applied, the proprietor must (if exact representations or specimens were not furnished on the application for registration) furnish to the Colonial Secretary the prescribed number of exact representations or specimens of the design; and if he fails to do so, the Colonial Secretary may erase his name from the register, and thereupon his copyright in the design shall cease.

designs.

10 Before delivery on sale of any articles to which a registered design has been applied, the proprietor of the design shall cause each such article to be marked with the prescribed mark, or with the prescribed word or words or figures, denoting that the design is registered, and if he fails to do so the copyright in the design shall cease, unless the proprietor shows that he took all proper steps to ensure the marking of the article.

Inspection of
designs.

11 (1) During the existence of copyright in a design, the design shall not be open to inspection except by the proprietor or a person authorized in writing by the proprietor, or a person authorized by the Colonial Secretary or by the court, and furnishing such information as may enable the Colonial Secretary to identify the design, nor except in the presence of the Colonial Secretary or of an officer acting under him, nor except on payment of the prescribed fee, and the person making the inspection shall not be entitled to take any copy of the design or of any part thereof. Provided that where registration of a design is refused on the ground of identity with a design already registered, the applicant for registration shall be entitled to inspect the design so registered.

(2) When the copyright in a design has ceased, the design shall be open to inspection, and copies thereof may be taken by any person on payment of the prescribed fee.

Information as to existence of copyright.

12 On the request of any person producing a particular design, together with its mark of registration or producing only its mark of registration, or furnishing such information as may enable the Colonial Secretary to identify the design, and on payment of the prescribed fee, it shall be the duty of the Colonial Secretary to inform such person whether the registration still exists in respect of such design, and if so, in respect of what class or classes of goods, and stating also the date of registration, and the name and address of the registered proprietor.

Cession of copyright in certain events.

13 If a registered design is used in manufacture in any foreign country and is not used in Ceylon within six months of its registration in the island, the copyright in the design shall cease.

Fees on registration, &c.

14 There shall be paid in respect of application and registration and other matters under this Ordinance such fees as the Governor in Executive Council shall by rule prescribe, and such fees shall be levied and paid into the Colonial Treasury.

Exhibition at industrial or international exhibition not to prevent or invalidate registration.

15 (1) The exhibition at an industrial or international exhibition certified as such by the Colonial Secretary, or the exhibition elsewhere during the period of the holding of the exhibition, without the privity or consent of the proprietor, of a design, or of any article to which a design is applied, or the publication during the holding of any such exhibition of a description of a design, shall not prevent the design from being registered, or invalidate the registration thereof, provided that both the following conditions are complied with :

- (a) The exhibitor must, before exhibiting the design or article, or publishing a description of the design, give the Colonial Secretary the prescribed notice of his intention to do so ; and
- (b) The application for registration must be made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

(2) The Governor in Council may by Proclamation direct that this section shall apply to any exhibition outside Ceylon, and thereupon it shall apply to the exhibition mentioned in the Proclamation as if it were an industrial or international exhibition certified by the Colonial Secretary.

(3) The Governor in Council may by order relieve exhibitors from giving notice to the Colonial Secretary of their intention to exhibit either absolutely or on such conditions as he thinks fit, and thereupon exhibitors shall be relieved accordingly.

Penalty on piracy of registered design.

16 During the existence of copyright in any design—

- (a) It shall not be lawful for any person without the license or written consent of the registered proprietor to apply or cause to be applied such design or any fraudulent or obvious imitation thereof, in the class or classes of goods in which such design is registered, for purposes of sale to any article of manufacture or to any substance, artificial or natural, or partly artificial and partly natural ; and
- (b) It shall not be lawful for any person to publish or expose for sale any article of manufacture or any substance to which such design or any fraudulent or obvious imitation thereof shall have been so applied, knowing that the same has been so applied without the consent of the registered proprietor.

Any person who acts in contravention of this section shall be liable for every offence to forfeit a sum not exceeding seven hundred and fifty rupees to the registered proprietor of the design, who may recover such sum as a simple contract debt by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, provided that the total sum forfeited in respect of any design shall not exceed one thousand five hundred rupees.

Action for damages.

17 Notwithstanding the remedy given by this Ordinance for the recovery of such penalty as aforesaid, the registered proprietor of any design may (if he elects to do so) bring an action for the recovery of any damages arising from the application of any such design or of any fraudulent or obvious imitation thereof for the purpose of sale to any article of manufacture or substance, or from the publication, sale, or exposure for sale by any person of any article or substance to which such design or any fraudulent or obvious imitation thereof shall have been so applied, such person knowing that the proprietor had not given his consent to such application.

Trust not to be entered in register.

18 There shall not be entered in the register of designs or be receivable by the Colonial Secretary any notice of any trust expressed, implied, or constructive.

Refusal to register in certain cases.

19 The Colonial Secretary may refuse to register a design of which the use would, in his opinion, be contrary to law or morality.

Entry of assignments and transmissions in register.

20 Where a person becomes entitled by assignment, transmission, or other operation of law to a registered design, the Colonial Secretary shall, on request, and on proof of title to his satisfaction, cause the name of such person to be entered as proprietor of the design in the register of designs. The person for the time being entered in the register of designs as proprietor of a design shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and to any rights appearing from such register to be vested in any other person, have power absolutely to assign, grant licenses as to, or otherwise deal with, the same, and to give effectual receipts for any consideration for such assignment, license, or dealing. Provided that any equities in respect of such design may be enforced in like manner as in respect of any other movable property.

Inspection of and extracts from register.

21 The register of designs shall at all convenient times be open to the inspection of the public, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and to such regulations as may be prescribed, and certified copies under the hand of the Colonial Secretary of any entry in any such register shall be given to any person requiring the same on payment of the prescribed fee.

Certified copies to be received in evidence.

22 Printed or written copies or extracts purporting to be certified by the Colonial Secretary or from any document, register, or other book filed or kept under this Ordinance in the said office shall be admitted in evidence in all courts in this colony and in all proceedings without further proof or production of the originals.

Rectification of register by court.

23 (1) The court may, on the application of any person aggrieved by the omission without sufficient cause of the name of any person or of any other particulars from the register of designs, or by any entry made without sufficient cause in such register, make such order for making, expunging, or varying the entry as the court thinks fit, or the court may refuse the application; and in either case may make such order with respect to the costs of the proceedings as the court thinks fit.

(2) The court may in any proceeding under this section decide any question which it may be necessary or expedient to decide for the rectification of the register of designs, and may direct and issue to be tried for the decision of any question of fact, and may award damages to the party aggrieved.

(3) Any order of the court rectifying the register of designs shall direct that due notice of the rectification be given to the Colonial Secretary.

Power to correct clerical errors.

24 The Colonial Secretary may, on request in writing accompanied by the prescribed fee—

- (a) Correct any clerical error in or in connection with an application for the registration of a design; or
- (b) Correct any clerical error in the name, style, or address of the registered proprietor of a design; or
- (c) Cancel the entry or part of the entry of a design on the register of designs, provided that the applicant accompanies his request by an affidavit made by himself, stating his name, address, and calling, and that he is the person whose name appears on the register of designs as the proprietor of the said design;

(d) Permit an applicant for registration of a design to amend his application by omitting any particular goods or classes of goods in connection with which he has desired the design to be registered.

Stamp duties.

25 The minimum stamp duties chargeable in the district court in civil proceedings under the provisions of the Ordinance for the time being in force relating to stamps shall, so far as the same may be applicable, and except as herein otherwise provided, be charged in all proceedings in the court under this Ordinance. But in no case shall the Colonial Secretary be required to use any stamp or be charged with any stamp duty.

Appeals.

26 Every judgment or order by the district court under this Ordinance shall be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court, and such appeal shall be subject to the same rules which govern interlocutory appeals from District Courts; and the minimum stamp duties chargeable in the Supreme Court under the provisions of the Ordinance for the time being in force relating to stamps shall, so far as the same may be applicable, be charged in all proceedings relating to or in connection with such appeal.

Certificate of Colonial Secretary to be evidence

27 A certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Colonial Secretary as to any entry, matter, or thing which he is authorized by this Ordinance, or any general rules made thereunder, to make or do, shall be prima facie evidence of the entry having been made, and of the contents thereof, and of the matter or thing having been done or left undone.

Applications and notices by post.

28 (1) Any application, notice, or other document authorized or required to be left with or sent to the Colonial Secretary or to any other person under this Ordinance may be sent by a registered letter through the post; and if so sent, shall be deemed to have been so left or given respectively at the time when the letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

(2) In proving such service or sending it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter was properly addressed and registered at the post office.

Case of infant, lunatic, &c.

29 If any person is, by reason of infancy, lunacy, or other inability, incapable of making any affidavit, or doing anything required or permitted by this Ordinance or by any rules made under the authority of this Ordinance, then the guardian of such incapable person, or if there be none, any person appointed by any court possessing jurisdiction in respect of the property of incapable persons, upon the petition of any person on behalf of such incapable person, or of any other person interested in the making of such affidavit or doing such thing may make such affidavit or an affidavit as nearly corresponding thereto as circumstances permit, and do such thing in the name and on behalf of such incapable person; and all acts done by such substitute shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be as effectual as if done by the person for whom he is substituted.

Offences.

30 (1) Any person who describes any design applied to any article sold by him as registered which is not so shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

(2) A person shall be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to represent that a design is registered if he sells the article with the word "registered," or any word or words expressing or implying that registration has been obtained for the article stamped, engraved, or impressed on, or otherwise applied to the article.

Arrangements for international protection of designs.

31 (1) If His Majesty is pleased by Order in Council to apply the provisions of section 103 of the Imperial Act, entitled "The Patent Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883," to Ceylon, then any person who has applied for protection in the United Kingdom or in any foreign state with the Government of which His Majesty has made an arrangement under the said section for mutual protection of designs shall be entitled to registration of his design under this Ordinance in priority to other applicants; and such registration shall take effect from the same date as the date of the application in the United Kingdom or such foreign state, as the case may be.

(2) Such application shall be made within four months from such person applying for protection in the United Kingdom or in the foreign state with which the arrangement is in force.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall entitle the proprietor of the design to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the actual registration of his design in Ceylon.

(4) The exhibition or use in Ceylon of the design or the publication therein of a description or representation thereof during the respective periods aforesaid shall not invalidate the registration of the design.

(5) The application for the registration of a design under this section shall be made in the same manner as an application under this Ordinance.

(6) The provisions of this section shall, in the case of foreign states, apply only in the case of those foreign states with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council shall have declared the provisions of the aforesaid section 103 of the said recited Imperial Act to be applicable, and so long only, in the case of each state, as such Order continues in force in respect to that state.

Intercolonial
designs.

32 (1) Whenever it appears to the Governor in Executive Council that the Legislature of any British Possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection in such Possession of designs registered in Ceylon, the Governor in Executive Council may by Proclamation apply all or any of the provisions of the last preceding section relating to the protection of designs registered in the United Kingdom, with such variations or additions (if any) as to the Governor in Executive Council seem fit to designs registered in such British Possession.

(2) A Proclamation under this section shall, from a date to be mentioned in the Proclamation, take effect as if its provisions had been contained in the Ordinance; but it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to revoke any such Proclamation.

Governor may make rules, &c.,
under this Ordinance

33 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may from time to time make such general rules, prescribe such forms, and do such things as he thinks expedient, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance:

(a) For regulating the practice of registration under this Ordinance.

(b) For classifying goods for the purposes of designs.

(c) For prescribing the fees payable in respect of applications and registration and other matters under this Ordinance, and the mode of payment of the same.

(d) Generally for regulating all things by this Ordinance placed under the direction or control of the Colonial Secretary.

(2) Any rules made in pursuance of this section shall be published in the Government Gazette, and it shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, to alter, amend, or revoke any such rules.
