DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to prevent Thefts of Cacao.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make special provision to prevent thefts of cacao: Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Cacao Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1904."

Application of Ordinance.

2 The Governor in Council may by Proclamation declare this Ordinance to be in force in any district or part of the island, and thereupon the same shall be in force within the limits and from the date mentioned in such Proclamation.

(2) The Governor in Council may from time to time revoke, alter, or add to any such Proclamation.

Definitions.	3 In this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears— “Cacao” means cacao beans whether in the pod or in the pulp or separated from the pulp, whether cured or uncured, ripe or unripe, but does not include cacao ground or otherwise prepared for immediate consumption. “Wet cacao” means cacao in the pod or cacao beans covered or partly covered with pulp. “Licensed dealer” means a person licensed to deal in cacao under this Ordinance. “Licensed premises” means the place where a licensed dealer is authorized to deal in cacao. “Purchase” includes the taking of cacao in exchange for other goods or on account of any claim or indebtedness. “Peace officer” means any headman appointed in writing by a government agent to perform police duties. “Government agent” includes an assistant government agent.
Purchase of cacao by unlicensed person prohibited.	4 It shall be unlawful for any person to purchase cacao unless he has been licensed under this Ordinance to deal in cacao, and any person who purchases cacao without being so licensed shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance. Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the purchase of cacao by any person from a licensed dealer or from any person for domestic purposes.
Power of government agent to issue licenses to deal in cacao.	5 (1) The government agent may issue free of charge licenses under his hand authorizing the persons to whom the same are granted to deal in cacao. (2) Every such license may be in the form marked A in the schedule or in such other form as the Governor may from time to time prescribe, and shall state the name and residence of the licensee and the premises at which he is authorized to deal in cacao. (3) Every such license shall expire, unless it is determined otherwise, on the thirty-first day of December next following the date when it was issued.
Power of Government with regard to refusal to issue license, &c.	6 (1) The government agent may at his discretion refuse to grant a license to any applicant or to renew any license which has expired, and may revoke any license already issued. (2) Any person who is aggrieved by the refusal of the government agent to grant or renew a license or by the revocation of a license may appeal to the Governor in Council, who may confirm or reverse such refusal or revocation as may appear just.
Duty of licensed dealers in cacao to paint words “Licensed Dealer in Cacao” on licensed premises.	7 Every licensed dealer shall cause the words “Licensed Dealer in Cacao” to be painted in conspicuous letters in the language most commonly spoken in the district upon his licensed premises. Any licensed dealer who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.
Provisions with regard to partners.	8 (1) Two or more persons carrying on business in partnership shall not be obliged to obtain more than one license in respect of the same premises. A license to two or more persons shall not be determined by the death or retirement from business of any one or more of the partners. (2) No license shall be assignable or shall authorize any person to deal in cacao by reason of his being executor or administrator of any person to whom such license has been granted.
Offences.	9 (1) It shall be unlawful— (a) For any person to sell or to offer for sale or to deliver, or for any licensed dealer to purchase or to take delivery of, any cacao except between sunrise and sunset, or at any place other than licensed premises; or

- (b) For any person to sell or to offer for sale or to deliver cacao to any person other than a licensed dealer ; or
- (c) For any licensed dealer to purchase or to take delivery of cacao from any person who is not personally known to him ; or from any person whom he knows or has reasonable grounds for believing is under the age of twelve years ; or
- (d) For any licensed dealer to purchase or take delivery of wet cacao from any person whatsoever.

(2) Any person who does any act in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

Refusing to answer question of licensed dealer.

10 Any person, not being a licensed dealer, who, when offering any cacao for sale, refuses to answer or answers falsely any question which may be put to him by any licensed dealer, or by any person acting for a licensed dealer, for the purpose of ascertaining his name and place of abode and the description and situation of the land of which such cacao is the produce, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment which may extend to two months.

Book to be kept by licensed dealer.

11 (1) Every licensed dealer shall keep on the premises at which he is authorized to deal in cacao a book which shall be supplied to him by the Government Agent, and shall enter therein, immediately upon or within two hours after the delivery at his licensed premises of any cacao purchased by him in the form marked B in the schedule hereto, or in such other form as the Governor may prescribe, the following particulars, namely :

- (1) The day, month, and year of such delivery.
- (2) The weight of cacao delivered.
- (3) The name and residence of the person from whom the cacao was purchased.
- (4) The price paid for the cacao.
- (5) Where the person from whom the cacao is purchased is not a licensed dealer, the description and situation of the lands of which such cacao is or is alleged to be the produce.

(2) Whenever any cacao which has not been purchased is brought into any licensed premises, whether the same is or is not the produce of land in the possession or occupation of the licensed dealer, the licensed dealer shall forthwith enter in the said book in the form C in the schedule hereto, or in such other form as may be prescribed for the purpose, the following particulars with regard to such cacao, namely :

- (1) The day, month, and year when the cacao was brought into the licensed premises
- (2) The weight of such cacao.
- (3) The manner in which the cacao was acquired, and, if grown on land in the possession or occupation of the licensed dealer, the description and situation of such land.

(3) Whenever the licensed dealer removes any cacao from his licensed premises, whether the same has been acquired by purchase or otherwise, the licensed dealer shall forthwith enter in the said book or books the date when the same was removed, and the name and residence of the person to whom the same was delivered.

Inspection of licensed premises.

12 It shall be lawful for any police magistrate or for any police officer not below the rank of a sergeant or for any peace officer authorized in writing by the government agent to inspect licensed premises to enter any licensed premises at any time between sunrise and sunset and to call for, inspect, and take extracts from any book required to be kept by this Ordinance, and if the licensed dealer or any one on his behalf fails to produce any such book, or refuses to allow such extracts to be made, or if any entry which ought to have been made is not in such book, or if any entry in such book is false in any particular, such licensed dealer shall be guilty of an offence, unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that such entry was made without his knowledge or consent or through a bonâ fide mistake, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment which may extend to two months.

Responsibilities of partners.

13 When a license is granted under this Ordinance to two or more persons carrying on business in partnership, every such person shall be liable for the acts and omissions of the other or other of them, unless the person held liable for the acts of his partner proves to the satisfaction of the court that he is innocent, and that he has in no way directly or indirectly contributed to the breach of the provisions of this Ordinance with which his partner is charged.

Endorsement of conviction on license.

14 When any licensed dealer is convicted of an offence against the Ordinance, a note of such conviction, and the date thereof, and the amount of the penalty inflicted shall be endorsed on the counterpart of the license; and when any licensed dealer is convicted of a second or subsequent offence against this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the convicting police magistrate, if he thinks fit, to order that his license be cancelled. The police magistrate shall cause notice of the cancellation of such license to be forwarded to the government agent, and no license under this Ordinance shall be granted to any person whose license has been so cancelled within twelve months from the date when the license was cancelled.

Duty of licensed dealer to keep scales on licensed premises.

15 Every licensed dealer shall keep on his licensed premises scales capable of weighing up to 100 lb. at the least, and whenever he is called upon to do so by any officer authorized by section 12 of this Ordinance to inspect licensed premises, he shall forthwith weigh all the cacao on his premises, and shall give every facility and assistance to such officer to compare the weight of the stock of cacao upon such premises with the weights thereof as entered in the books which the licensed dealer is required by this Ordinance to keep.

Where discrepancy between weight of cacao in licensed premises and weight according to books.

16 Whenever the weight of cacao found on the premises of a licensed dealer does not agree with the weight which, according to his books, ought to be on such premises, he shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance. Provided that if he satisfies the government agent that such discrepancy has arisen through some bonâ fide mistake or owing to some loss, the government agent may direct that no prosecution shall be instituted against the licensed dealer.

Where inspecting officer is refused admittance.

17 A licensed dealer shall at any time between sunrise and sunset give admittance to any officer who is authorized by section 12 of this Ordinance to inspect licensed premises, and if any such officer is refused or is unable to obtain admittance and to inspect the licensed premises or the dealer's books, the licensed dealer carrying on business in such premises shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance. Provided, however, that if such officer has reasonable grounds for believing that any offence has been committed upon the licensed premises against this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for him to demand admittance and to inspect the same and the dealer's books, though it be after sunset and before sunrise, and unless he is admitted into the premises forthwith the licensed dealer shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and it shall be lawful for such officer to break into the licensed premises.

Possession of cacao reasonably suspected to have been stolen.

18 (1) Any person who is found in possession or charge of any wet cacao which is suspected to have been stolen, may be charged with being in possession of cacao which is reasonably suspected of having been stolen; and if such person does not give an account to the satisfaction of the police magistrate as to how he came by such cacao, and the police magistrate is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, there are reasonable grounds for suspecting such cacao to have been stolen, such person may be convicted of an offence under this Ordinance.

(2) Where any police officer or peace officer finds any person in possession or charge of wet cacao which he suspects to have been stolen, he shall require him to give a full and satisfactory account of the same, and if such person refuses or is unable to give an account to the satisfaction of such officer, such cacao may be seized, and such person may be brought before a police magistrate and charged as aforesaid.

(3) Upon a conviction under this section the police magistrate may direct the cacao in respect of which the accused was convicted, if the same has been seized, to be restored to any person who he is satisfied is the lawful owner thereof, otherwise he shall order the same to be forfeited.

19 Any person who is convicted of an offence against this Ordinance for which no punishment is specially provided by this Ordinance shall be liable to simple or rigorous imprisonment which may extend to six months, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees.

20 It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to make rules and to frame forms for giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance.
