DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Opium Ordinance, 1899."

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Opium Ordinance, 1899," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Opium (Amendment) Ordinance, 1905," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Opium Ordinance, 1899," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance," and the principal Ordinance, Ordinance No. 14 of 1903, and this Ordinance may be cited together as "The Opium Ordinances, 1899 to 1905."

2 The following section shall be substituted for section 15 of the principal Ordinance:

Conditions may be attached to licenses.

15 (1) The proper authority may at his discretion refuse to grant any license or may attach such conditions thereto as he may deem expedient, provided that such conditions shall, in the case of a license to sell opium by retail, inter alia, include the following :

- (a) No opium shall be sold, given, or transferred between the hours of 8 at night and 6 in the morning.
- (b) The quantity to be sold, given, or transferred at any one time to any individual, except to a licensed retail vendor, shall not exceed 180 grains.
- (c) Opium shall not be consumed on the premises.
- (d) Opium offered for sale or transfer shall not be adulterated or deteriorated in any way.
- (e) Opium shall not be sold, given, or transferred to any individual apparently under the age of fifteen years.
- (f) Wearing apparel or other goods shall not be received in barter for opium.
- (g) Daily accounts shall be kept in a form to be prescribed by the proper authority of the quantities of opium received, sold, given, or transferred and remaining on hand at the end of each day.

Licenses may be revoked.

(2) The proper authority may revoke such license in the event of—

- (a) Any conditions or any of the provisions of this Ordinance being infringed in respect thereof ; or
- (b) For any reason whatsoever, on giving fifteen days' notice to the licensee and on paying to him a sum bearing the same proportion to the sum paid for the license as the unexpired part of the period for which the license runs does to the whole period in respect of which it was issued.

3 The following section shall be substituted for section 16 of the principal Ordinance :

16 (1) No person shall sell, give, or transfer, or suffer or permit to be sold, given, or transferred, any opium in any quantity under the provisions of this Ordinance except for ready money to be paid for on the spot at the time of such sale, gift, or transfer, and not otherwise.

Penalty for transfer or breaches of Ordinance. Sale of bhang or ganja absolutely prohibited.

(2) Any person who shall possess, transfer, give, sell, or offer for sale, or suffer or permit to be sold, given, or transferred, any opium in breach of or in any way contrary to any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or otherwise than in accordance with the license in that behalf granted under this Ordinance ; or possess, sell, give, transfer, or offer for sale or transfer, or suffer or permit to be sold, given, or transferred, any bhang or ganja, or any substance containing bhang or ganja, and every holder of a license for the sale by wholesale or retail of opium who sells, gives, or transfers, or allows any person to sell, give, or transfer opium to any person apparently under the age of fifteen years, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on the first conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment not exceeding three months, or to both ; and on every subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, simple or rigorous, not exceeding six months, or to both.

Sale of opium to children prohibited.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. M. ASHMORE,
Colombo, April 10, 1905. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is considered necessary to prevent licensed opium sellers from evading the provisions of sections 15 and 16 of Ordinance No. 5 of 1899 by entering in their books dealings in opium as gifts or transfers and not as sales. In a case from the Kurunegala District in which the prosecutor had proved the transfer by a licensed dealer of a considerable quantity of opium to a customer, not being a licensed retail vendor, the Supreme Court held that the dealer could not be prosecuted under section 16 of the Ordinance, as there was no evidence of a sale by him.
