DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance for the establishment and regulation of Vacations in the Supreme Court.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the establishment and regulation of vacations in the Supreme Court: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Supreme Court (Vacation) Ordinance, 1905."

Interpretation. 2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "public holidays" means the days declared to be public holidays and bank holidays by "The Holidays Ordinance, 1886," and includes any days which the Governor, under section 9 of the said Ordinance, has appointed to be observed as public holidays or as bank holidays.

Vacations in the Supreme Court.

3 The following vacations, to be called respectively the Christmas vacation, the Easter vacation, and the August vacation, shall be observed in each year in the Supreme Court.

Duration of vacation.

4 (1) The Christmas vacation shall commence on the twenty-second day of December and terminate on the eleventh day of the next following January. The Easter vacation shall commence on Good Friday and shall continue for twenty-one days. The August vacation shall commence on such day in August as the Chief Justice shall appoint in each year for the purpose and shall continue for ten days.

(2) The days of the commencement and termination of each vacation shall be included in such vacation.

Opening of Supreme Court and Registry.

5 The Supreme Court and the Registry and offices of the Court shall be open during vacation for the purpose of holding the criminal sessions of the Court and the transaction of all business incidental thereto, and also for the purpose of transacting business under the next following section.

Hearing in vacation of certain matters.

6 The Supreme Court shall during vacation hear and determine criminal appeals and all such applications, motions, and other matters as the exigency of the particular case may require to be immediately or promptly heard and determined.

Validity of acts done in vacation.

7 Every act, matter, or thing done in vacation in pursuance of this Ordinance shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if done out of vacation.

Vacation not included in computation of time.

8 Where by any Ordinance, or rule regulating civil procedure, or by any special order of the Court, any limited time not exceeding one month is appointed or allowed for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding in the Supreme Court, no days included in a vacation shall be reckoned in the computation of such time unless the Court otherwise directs.

Vacation judge.

9 During vacation, except on public holidays, there shall be at least one judge in Colombo for such time as the Chief Justice may direct.

By His Excellency's command,

G. M. FOWLER,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, September 9, 1905.

Objects and Reasons.

THE Draft Ordinance was prepared to meet the general wish of members of the Bar that the periods to be observed by the Supreme Court as vacation should be defined and regulated by law.

2. The periods which the Ordinance sets apart as vacation are twenty-one days at Christmas and Easter and ten days in August.

3. Provision is made for the carrying on of the criminal sessions of the Court during vacation and for the hearing of criminal appeals and other urgent matters, and the Ordinance requires that during vacation there shall be at least one Judge in Colombo.

August 21, 1905.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the provisions of section 439 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," with regard to the summary trial of witnesses on indictments for intentionally giving false evidence in a stage of a judicial proceeding, should be extended so as to apply to trials in district courts: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Criminal Procedure Amendment Ordinance, 1905."

Substitution of new section for section 439 of Criminal Procedure Code.

2 For section 439 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," the following section is hereby substituted, namely:

(1) If in the course of a trial in any district court or of a trial by jury before the Supreme Court any witness shall on any material point contradict either expressly or by necessary implication the evidence previously given by him at the inquiry before the police magistrate, it shall be lawful for the presiding judge, upon the conclusion of such trial, to have such witness arraigned and tried on an indictment for intentionally giving false evidence in a stage of a judicial proceeding. In a trial before the Supreme Court the indictment shall be prepared and signed by the registrar, and the accused may be tried by the same jury. In a trial in a district court the indictment shall be prepared and signed by the secretary of such court.

(2) At such trial it shall be sufficient to prove that the accused made the contradictory statements alleged in the indictment, and it shall not be necessary to prove which of such statements is false.

(3) The presiding judge may, if he considers expedient, adjourn the trial of such witness for such period as he may think fit, and may commit such witness to custody or take bail in his own recognizance or with sureties for his appearance. In the Supreme Court such adjourned trial shall be before the same or any other jury as the judge shall direct.

By His Excellency's command.

G. M. FOWLER,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, September 21, 1905.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 439 of the Criminal Procedure Code provides for the summary trial of witnesses who, in trials before the Supreme Court, contradict on material points the evidence previously given by them at the inquiry before the Police Magistrate.

The purpose of the present Ordinance is to extend the application of this section to trials in District Courts.

2. The Draft Ordinance substitutes for section 439 a new section, which provides for the summary trial of witnesses who have given such contradictory evidence either before the Supreme Court or in a District Court.
