By-laws for Licensed Vehicles.

1. The proper authority may from time to time appoint and remove Inspectors of Carriages, Hackeries, and Coaches, and it shall be the duty of such Inspectors to report to the proper authority on the condition of carriages, hackeries, and coaches plying on the lines of road for which they are appointed. The Inspectors' reports shall be forwarded at such time as the proper authority may appoint, and the proper authority may call for a special report at any time.

2. The report of an Inspector of Carriages, Hackeries, and Coaches shall include a distinct reference to the number painted on the carriage, hackery, or coach; a description of the condition of the carriage, hackery, or coach; the condition of the horses, bulls, or other animals used for drawing the carriage, hackery, or coach; the height (approximately) of the horse or horses, bull or bulls; the condition of the harness; the condition of the notifications to the public, which, under these by-laws, should be apparent and legible on such carriage, hackery, or coach.

3. It shall be lawful for an Inspector so appointed within his jurisdiction to enter upon any premises used as carriage, hackery, or coach stables in any town, or along any line of road on which carriages, hackeries, or coaches are licensed to ply, and to call upon the person in charge of such stables to produce for his inspection the license for such carriages, hackeries, or coaches as may be there, and the horses and harness or bulls kept in such stables for the use of the same, and any person in charge of such stables not giving such Inspector all reasonable assistance at such inspection shall be guilty of an offence.

4. No carriage, hackery, or coach shall be licensed under the provisions of "The Vehicles Ordinance, 1901," unless an Inspector has first certified that it is in all respects fit and safe to be used for passengers, and that the requirements of the said Ordinance and of these by-laws have been complied with.

5. The Inspector shall, when furnishing such certificate, specify the number of passengers which such carriage, hackery, or coach should be permitted to carry.

6. It shall be the duty of every owner of a carriage, hackery, or coach, before applying for a certificate, to notify his intention of doing so to the proper authority, who shall enter the name of the applicant and the number assigned to him in a register, and return to the applicant his notification, having endorsed thereon in letters and figures the number which the vehicle is to bear. This endorsement shall be signed by some one authorized by the proper authority.

7. Before a carriage, hackery, or coach is produced to the Inspector to be inspected with a view to obtaining a certificate, such carriage, hackery, or coach shall be conspicuously marked with the number (which shall be one of a progressive series) obtained from the proper authority in the manner laid down in rule 6 above. This number shall be not less than four inches in diameter, and shall be painted on each of the two sides of the carriage, hackery, or coach, and no two carriages, hackeries, or coaches licensed by the same authority shall bear the same number.

9. A notice stating the number of passengers (including the driver and other attendants) which the carriage, hackery, or coach is licensed to carry shall be exposed in a conspicuous part of each carriage, hackery, or coach. This notice shall be kept clean and legible, being renewed from time to time if necessary. No carriage, hackery, or coach shall carry a greater number of persons than is permitted by the license, nor shall the driver at any time refuse to carry the full number of passengers.

10. When an Inspector refuses to grant the certificate mentioned in by-law No. 4, he shall report in writing to the proper authority his reason for such refusal, and shall at the same time furnish the applicant with a copy of his report, so as to enable the applicant to make good the deficiencies on account of which the certificate was refused.

11. No owner of any licensed carriage, hackery, or coach shall use or allow to be used any animal for drawing the same, or any harness or other apparatus in connection therewith, unless such animal, apparatus, or harness shall be in a fit condition to be so used, regard being had to the safety of the passengers and the humane treatment of the animal.

12. Both the proprietors and the drivers of vehicles shall be responsible when the horses, bulls, or equipment of their carriages, hackeries, or coaches are deficient in terms of these by-laws, when passengers in excess of the number allowed by the license are carried in any carriage, hackery, or coach, when animals unfit to draw carriages, hackeries, or coaches are used, or when animals attached to a carriage, hackery, or coach driven by them are cruelly treated. On such proof being furnished to his satisfaction he shall issue a license to such driver, and shall register such license in a book to be kept for that purpose. No one but a licensed driver shall drive or be in charge of any licensed vehicle.

14. It shall be the duty of every Inspector to file a prosecution against both the driver and the proprietor of any carriage, hackery, or coach for any offence or breach of these by-laws coming under his notice, and to prosecute such charge to final judgment.

15. Both the proprietor and the driver shall be held to have committed an offence if any number, notice, or writing required by these by-laws to be exhibited in any part of any carriage, hackery, or coach is obliterated, removed, or altered.

16. Each passenger travelling by a licensed coach shall be permitted to carry luggage not exceeding 28 lb. in weight, and in all cases in which any excess above 28 lb. of luggage for each passenger is carried there shall be fewer passengers carried in proportion of one passenger for each hundredweight of excess luggage. 17. It shall be the duty of all proprietors of coaches to register at the office of the proper authority their agents at the various coach offices on the line, and to register all their coach drivers, giving the names and addresses of such agents and coach drivers in full.

18. The proper authority shall classify all licensed vehicles other than coaches, carts, hackeries, and jinrickhas into first and second class vehicles, and shall determine with regard to each vehicle the number of passengers which it may carry. The proper authority shall cause to be entered on the license of each vehicle the class to which it belongs and the number of passengers which it is licensed to carry.

21. Public stands for licensed carriages and hackeries shall be appointed at the following places, namely, (1) at the junction near the jail; (2) at the railway station.

22. When such public stands shall be appointed, the proper authority shall cause due notice thereof to be given in such public manner as to him may seem fit that the same will be opened for public use on a date to be fixed in the said notice, and no carriage or hackery licensed for hire shall ply for hire from that date except from one of such stands or from the owner's residence or place of business.

23. After every fourth carriage or hackery in every stand there shall be left a space of at least eight feet for passengers on foot to pass through.

24. Every carriage or hackery on its arrival at any public stand shall be drawn to the end of and be the last of the rank of any carriages or hackeries already occupying such stand, and at every stand all carriages shall be arranged only in single rank.

25. All licensed carriages and hackeries plying for hire (unless previously engaged or as hereinafter excepted) shall be driven up to the public stands at 6.30 A.M., and shall stand for hire till 7 P.M., except during a reasonable interval for rest, and the driver of every licensed carriage or hackery used for the conveyance of passengers shall remain in charge of it so long as it is drawn up at any stand.

2. Tenders must be sealed and endorsed on the envelopes "Tender for the supply of Rice, Dandagama District."

unless it is furnished on the recognized form thus obtained.

5. Parties applying for form of tender will be required to deposit the sum of Rs. 50 either at the Treasury or the Kachcheri and produce a receipt for the same. Should the party fail to submit in accordance with the terms of this notice a bona fide tender, or to enter into the necessary contract, or deposit the required cash security, the sum of Rs. 50 deposited will be forfeited by way of ascertained and liquidated damages.

6. Further information may be obtained on application at the Provincial Engineer's Office at Kurunegala.

7. Before any tender is accepted the contractor will be required to sign a contract and to deposit a sum of Rs. 250 for the due and faithful performance of the contract within ten days of receiving notice in
